COURSE PROJECT: Motion and Multiples

A project-led course exploring different ways of understanding and depicting the human form with a range of long and short poses. A life model is present for all sessions. The project for this course is Motion and Multiples and will include drawing the moving figure and depicting sequences and groups of figures.

A variety of approaches will be covered ranging from carefully considered analytical drawing to experimental gestural methods.

All model fees inc; materials exc. Life drawing experience is required. Not suitable for beginners.

CORE SKILLS:

- Objective and traditional observation methods
- Depicting tonal values and observing light and shade
- Gestural approaches for drawing the figure in motion
- Explore angles, shapes, gestures
- Learn to develop your own creative response and style

MATERIALS LIST:

A range of pencils: e.g. H, HB, B, 2B, 4B and a pencil sharpener, bulldog clips, willow charcoal sticks, eraser, A2 cartridge paper, minimum of 2 coloured pencils, approx 2 sheets of A3 tracing paper.

Optional: Any other personally preferred materials e.g. graphite, pastels, paints, inks, pens, coloured pencils, conte crayons or pencils, black paper and white media etc. Advice on painting materials will be offered during your first session with your tutor and you may have already some art materials which can be used.
