Learn how to create by hand a single section, cloth covered case binding/hardback book. A “case binding” consists of a section or multiple sections set between a hard front and a back cover and a spine. These books are ideal for presenting work, sketchbooks, gifts, or as the basis for artist books. On completion of the workshop students will leave with their own handmade book and the skills to make more at home using minimal equipment. Suitable for total beginners or for those that have attended one or both of our previous workshops.

Materials List:

All materials are included. Tools will be provided for the duration of the workshop. You will be able to buy equipment on the day if you wish to. Please bring an apron.

Tutor:

Kate Rochester from the London Centre for Book Arts.

Refreshments:

Tea and coffee are provided during the day. The workshop will allow for a one hour break at lunch time to be spent at your leisure. There is a seated area to eat lunch if you bring it with you, otherwise there are lots of cafes on the High Street nearby.
